One of our cobbler's outfits will save your shoes, save repair bills, save lots of time in taking the work somewhere else. You can easily do work for your neighbors in your spare time if you care to, besides you don't have to be without your boots and shoes a day or two or three days while they are being repaired.

YOU will find one of our cobbler's outfits about the best investment you have ever made both from the stand-point of time and money.

Queen Mary's Simply Furnished Bedroom on the Yacht Medina

NO prodigal display marked the furnishing of the suits prepared for King George and Queen Mary on the liner Medina, converted into a royal yacht for their journey to India. The simplicity of the queen's sleeping room is shown by the accompanying illustration. The greatest luxury which she allowed herself in beds was the installation of a swinging cot to neutralize the effects of rough seas, the ordinary bed being used in calm weather. Queen Mary's suit has a general color scheme of delicate green. The king's is done in light blue. Three cows from the home farm at Windsor were requisitioned to supply the royal party with milk.

You can't stand well with your friends if you persist in sitting on them. A hen wastes an immense amount of energy in cackling. Do you?

NO CAUSE TO DOUBT.

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee.

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Reall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming the weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Reall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Reall Remedies in Henderson only at our store—The Rexall Store. W. W. Parker.

Blown Up From Outside.

The battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor by an explosion from the outside. This is the gist of a short statement issued by the Navy Department, based on findings made by the joint army and navy board, which spent several months in Havana harbor investigating the wreck.

The statement was as follows: "The board finds that the injuries to the bottom of the Maine were caused by the explosion of a charge of low form of explosives exterior to the ship between frames 28 and 31, stake B., port side. This resulted in igniting and exploding the contents of the six inch reserve magazine, A-14-M, said contents including a large quantity of black powder. The more or less complete explosion of the contents of the remaining forward magazine followed. The magazine explosion resulted in the destruction of the vessel."

He Couldn't Stay Bought.

A guest was expected for dinner and Bobby had received five cents as the price of his silence during the meal. He was quiet as a mouse until, discovering that his favorite desert was being served, he could no longer curb his enthusiasm. He drew the coin from his pocket, and, rolling it across the table, explained, "Here's your nickel, mother. I'd rather talk."—Success Magazine.

Considerate.

"Why do you argue with your wife?" asked the bachelor. "Don't you know the futility of it?"
"Of course," replied the married man, "but I have to allow her a little pleasure once in a while"—Puck.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Henderson Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble pain, Doan's Kidney Pills can help you. Henderson people endorse our claim.

A. T. Barnes, 318 Rowland St., Henderson, N. C., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a remedy of merit and I do not hesitate one moment in recommending them. My kidneys caused me a great deal of annoyance and there was a steady, dull pain through my loins. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from the Kerner-MacNair Co.'s Drug Store and began their use. They quickly removed my trouble and acted beneficially in every way. In February 1908, I publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills and at this time I can still say a good word for them. I have had no further need of a kidney medicine since I was relieved."

TURQUOISE MINES.

Product is More or Less of a Gamble in Persia.

"The turquoise mines of Persia are situated some hundreds of feet up a low range of hills which are of a magenta hue, and the one we visited was entered by a tiny iron grille. Once inside," says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, "we scrambled down over very rough rocks to a lateral gallery, at the end of which, by the uncertain light of evil smelling earthenware lamps, the quarrying was in full swing."

"Two gangs, each composed of three or four men, were knocking off pieces of the rock and then roughly breaking them up. This operation having been completed, boys carried the ore up to the surface. After observing this very primitive method of mining we were next taken up to a point above the mine and were treated to an explosion to illustrate the Persian way of blasting."

"This, much to our relief, passed off without any accident, and we then returned to the village to witness the operation of sorting the turquoises. The contents of the bags were poured into shallow circular pans, into which water was run. The fragments were then worked by the feet of gangs of boys under the charge of two men armed with long switches."

"After perhaps half an hour of this treatment fresh water was run in and the turquoises examined. This process is repeated three times, and then the turquoises, which are still in the rock, are sorted into sealed bags and sent into Meshed. There consignments are purchased and the stones are ground by professional polishers."

"It is only at this stage that the value of the stones can be in any way estimated, and purchasing bags of ore is a speculation which is occasionally indulged in by all classes and conditions of people, the Persians being particularly fond of anything in the way of a gamble."

Monster Beds.

Though the beds of the royal personages of England were elaborately carved and hung with rich curtains even so late as the Tudor period, it is recorded that King Henry VIII's bed contained only straw beneath all its finery. A curious order exists as to precautions to be taken against the possibility of intended mischief to the royal person in the making of the bed, for the usher was to search the straw through with a dagger "that there be none untruth therein and to tumble over on the down bed for the better search thereof." The bed of Henry VIII. was nearly eleven feet square, and of even more generous dimensions is the great bed to which Shakespeare refers in a well known passage in "Twelfth Night," which was twelve feet square. This "great bed of Ware" has been a marvel for centuries.

For a Cold Kiss a Mule.

Some of the sufferers from coughs and colds may feel disposed to try one of the remedies recommended by Pliny. These include wolf's liver dissolved in hot wine, honey mixed with the gall of a bear and powders made from rabbit skins and bullocks' horns burned and pounded together. Should one's ills resist these simple remedies for a cough he might try wrapping any of his fingers in the skin of a freshly killed dog. Tree frogs, too, are excellent for all forms of catarrh. Place one in the mouth for a minute, and when he makes his escape the sufferer is cured. No harm is done to the frog. For a cold in the head Pliny prescribes a simple yet infallible remedy—three kisses on the mouth of a mule.

Nobility.

There was once an Oxford don, a very eminent man, whose father was a humble carpenter. As the don stood conversing one day before the miter with a group of distinguished visitors the old man, in his working clothes, slunk by on the other side of the street, thinking he would spare his son the mortification of a salute. But the son, breaking off his conversation, called out in the good Hampshire dialect of his childhood:

"Eh, feyther! If thee hain't ashamed of I, I hain't ashamed of thee."

Just as Bad.

Mr. Simpson was reading the newspaper. "Here's a man got into a drunken brawl and was stabbed to death," he said aloud. His wife glanced up from her knitting and commented: "In some low drinking den, I suppose?" "No; th' paper says he got stabbed in th' thoracic cavity." "Same thing. You'd think th' police 'd close such a place up."
